

Hello, my old friend,

My wife and I were discussing you tonight. We decided to go on line to see if we could locate you!

To our delight, we found you!!! We are not at all surprised to see that you are still designing magnificent rings. Your craft is such a gift and so few are as talented as you.

Kimmie loves the beautiful ring you designed for her when I was on the radio in Boston. She won't even let me hold it (laughing:-) She needs to have it checked and cleaned but is afraid to let it out of her sight. She believes and I agree, the only one she trusts to handle her precious ring is the man who made it for us, YOU!

Take care of yourself.

All our best & God Bless

Joe & Kimmie
